

ENGR 103: INTRO TO ENGINEERING PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

First Year Engineering students are welcome to register for this professional development course to prepare for early career opportunities including internships, co-ops and skills training.

COURSE OVERVIEW

Connect with students, faculty and industry professionals

Transition your resume & cover letter from high school to college

Develop a LinkedIn profile, elevator pitch and your personal brand

Network with guest speakers and top employers as a FYE student

Undergraduate teaching assistants will serve as mentors to provide feedback, share knowledge and help with your career readiness skills

REGISTER ON myPURDUE

Wednesday, 4:30 - 5:20pm

CRN: 28761

Location: ARMS 1010

Thursday, 9:30 - 10:20am

CRN: 24710

Location: LMBS 3239

Kai Ze Ee

ENGR 103 Teaching Assistant & Rising Sophomore in ECE & STARS

"In Intro to Engineering Professional Development, you develop all of the foundations, not just the material foundations like your resume and LinkedIn profile. You get to go to IR, talk to companies and recruiters, and practice being able to express and project what you want to do, where you're at, and what your interests are."